St Mary's, Rongotai keep on winning

JACOB BELESKI

St Mary's College and Rongotai College both identified team culture as a key factor in their remarkably successful basketball seasons.

something that's really stood out for me. Others have complimented us on that as well. Coach Nixon Penese said they would not get ahead of themselves before the national tournament.

The Rongotai College junior boys' basketball team celebrate their win at the lower North Island junior basketball championships in Palmerston North.

to pursue, but if they did you would not be against them. They backed up their 2015 success by defending their Wellington and lower North Island titles, winning every match this season on their way to a 33-0 record.

Palmerston was to win the rebounding battle. There was a lot of burden on Reon and Jaylin to defend guys much taller than them.

U-20s book spot in finals

New Zealand have secured a spot at the 2017 under-20 World Cup in Korea Republic after coming from behind to earn a 3-1 win over New Caledonia in the semifinals of the Oceania Championship in Vanuatu.

New Zealand's experienced heads that got the favourites back on track. Moses Dyer and captain Clayton Lewis were both rested for the previous match to avoid potentially picking up another booking and missing today's match.
